PURA ORGANISES AWARENESS CAMPAIGN AND COMMUNITY OUTREACH ACTIVITIES AT GOVERNMENT BOYS MIDDLE SCHOOL, CHOHALA, UNDER NSS SPECIAL CAMP	The NSS Unit of Government Degree College (GDC) R.S. Pura organised an awareness campaign and a series of community outreach activities at Government Boys Middle School, Chohala as part of its ongoing NSS Special Camp under the esteemed patronage and guidance of Principal Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour. The programme was coordinated by NSS Programme Officer Prof. Lukesha Dubgotra with the active support of faculty members Dr. Sunil Kumar Mangoch and Prof. Rajinder Singh who accompanied the NSS volunteers throughout the activities. The initiative aimed to sensitise school students towards social responsibility, ethical values and the importance of collective efforts in building a corruption-free society. As part of the campaign, NSS volunteers delivered informative lectures on the theme "Corruption-Free

			India," highlighting the importance of honesty, integrity, transparency and responsible citizenship in nation-building. The interactive sessions encouraged students to adopt ethical practices and develop a sense of responsibility towards society. Extending the spirit of social service, the NSS volunteers also distributed stationery items and food materials among the school students. The initiative aimed to support and encourage young learners while promoting the values of compassion, sharing and community service. The activities provided a meaningful opportunity for NSS volunteers to interact with the school community, spread awareness and contribute towards social welfare. The programme also highlighted the role of education, moral values and community participation in bringing about positive social change. Principal Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour appreciated the efforts of the NSS Programme Officer, accompanying faculty members and NSS volunteers in successfully organising the initiative. She encouraged the NSS Unit to continue undertaking such socially relevant activities for the welfare of the community.
